NOTES ABOUT TOWN.

—Now is the time to plant trees.

—Mr. Willard Richards and Dr. H. E. Richards have returned to Bloomfield.

—Rev. Gottfried Voss of Sayresville, N. J., was in town last week.

—Mr. Schuyler has under way the erection of a house on the lot directly east of his residence, Belleville avenue.

—Studiosus Cornelius Wedel has been elected president of the Missionary Society of the Theological Seminary.

—Two new houses are well under way on the west side of the park, near the Park Methodist Church.

—The Macadamized roads are a great success. Mr. McDowell seems to be both willing and able to do good work.

—Two new houses will be erected this season on Clark St., upon the Gallagher property at Glen Ridge.

—Herbert Baker, a reporter for the Mechanicsville Mercury, has been visiting his uncle, Abel Baker, for the past week.

—Mr. Herbert Biddulph has been appointed an officer of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. Has Bloomfield come to a condition demanding special protection to children?

—The lot adjoining the German Theological Seminary, on Franklin street, is being cleared for the purpose of the construction of a first class and commodious dwelling house by Judge Amzi Dodd.

—Rev. Albert Mann will address the Gospel Temperance meeting to-morrow afternoon in the lecture room of the Baptist Church. The celebrated Thompson street Quartette, of New York City, will also take part.

—Now approaches the season when that death dealing creature, the fresh air fiend, revels in the misery of helpless railroad passengers. A warmer time awaits them later. That is some satisfaction to the uncharitable mind.

—The death of William H. Martin, of the firm of Martin Bros., occurred yesterday morning at Newark. Mr. Martin went to the city Thursday afternoon to undergo surgical treatment, which was not considered dangerous.

—There is some fear of the elm tree pest visiting us this year. If these fears are realized a vigorous campaign should be maintained against the enemy, for the loss of our elms would be an almost irreparable injury to this generation of Bloomfielders.

—What possible reason can the D. L. & W. R. R. Company have for continuing the farce of running express trains which take just a little longer to reach their destination than the accomodation trains and cause great inconvenience to hundreds of passengers?

—It is suggested by a prudent and careful and well informed reader of the CITIZEN that it should be printed upon parchment so that the eyesight of those who read its columns after they have been persued by fifty or sixty others may not be taxed as severely as at present. There is something in this suggestion.

—The "Burnt District" once occupied by Archdeacon's Hotel is an eyesore and a blot. The value of property in the Centre and in the whole town in fact is depreciated by it. If the owner of it cannot afford to fix it up, the requisite small sum might easily be raised from the suffering public.

—Mr. Geo. E. Shepard, inventor of the Shepard Racket, has accepted a position as manager of the Lawn Tennis department of the well-known house of Adams and Young, Importers, New York. The Shepard Improved Racket can be obtained from C. R. Bourne, who will also supply all goods in the Tennis line at lowest market rates.

—At a meeting of the Bloomfield Reform Club, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Pres., John Sanderson; 1st Vice Pres., H. H. Biddulph; 2d Vice Pres., F. R. Batchelder; 3d Vice Pres., J. M. Williams; Cor. Secy., Samuel Peloubet; Financial Secy., James Robb; Treas., Wm. Colfax; Steward, Nathan Russell, J. A. Peloubet; Seargent at Arms. Thomas Hayes.

—A story of unusual interest will be commenced in the next issue of THE CITIZEN. Note the announcement of the same on the third page of this number.

—Miss Baker, who has been spending the winter with Abel Baker, and attending school here, returned to her home at Saratoga on Monday last.

—The Montgomery S. S. monthly missionary meeting was held last Sunday afternoon 4 o'clock, and was well attended by the people of the Soho neighborhood.

—A meeting of the Centre Book Club, held Monday afternoon, resulted in the re-election of the former committee, viz: Mrs. D. B. Coe, Mrs. Duncan Kennedy, Mrs. Amzi Dodd and Miss Anna L. Ward.

—The two residences owned by G. Lee Stout, recently built on Franklin street, are nearly completed and will be ready for occupancy this month. They have been rented by Mr. Walter Coggershall and Rev. Samuel W. Duffield.

—The residence of the late Mr. C. Peloubet, owned by the estate of Israel C. Ward, has been raised and is undergoing marked improvements in its exterior appearance and in its interior conveniences.

—The audience which greeted Guy Min, the Chinese Reformer at the German church last week, was as large as the building could hold and appeared to be deeply interested in the subject of the lecture.

—Ground will be broken in a few days for a house to be built and occupied by Mr. Theodore Nevius on his lot near the Glen Ridge Club House, on Ridgewood avenue. This will probably be one of the handsomest residences in Bloomfield.

—The Essex County Building and Loan Association will hold their regular monthly meeting at Unangst's Hall next Tuesday, April 20. The business to be transacted will consist of receiving monthly dues, offering money for loan, and opening of the second series of stock.

—The principal and at the same time very effective speech at the grand mass meeting of Christian Germans of Cincinnati, in favor of a quiet Sabbath, was made by Rev. E. O. Zesch of Cincinnati, a graduate from the Bloomfield Seminary and son-in-law of Mr. John G. Keyler.

—Amusement and indignation will go hand in hand when reading "Journalistic Barbarism," under Literary Notes in this issue of THE CITIZEN. That the writer has aptly and fairly dealt with the "ubiquitous reporter" will be the universal verdict of those persons who carefully peruse the entire article.

—Some forty or fifty ladies and gentlemen participated in a surprise to Miss Josephine Earl, on Liberty street, on Friday evening of last week. Music was furnished by Mr. Issler, and Allen looked after the refreshments. The surprise was complete, Miss Earl having gone out to spend the evening with a friend, who kindly conducted her to the festivities at her own home. Dancing was kept up until a late hour. As Miss Earl was similarly surprised about a year ago, we suspect that she is somewhat popular with the young ladies and gentlemen of the village. Her home is large, and furnishes abundant room for those who delight in the deservedly popular amusement of dancing.

Fire Department Notes.

The Fire Committee of the township have purchased a hose jumper and 500 feet of hose for Excelsior Hose Co. No. 3. It is expected in a few days and the new company will then go into active service.

A new system of fire alarm districts will be adopted and published in a few days. In sending an alarm by telephone, call Box 24, Bloomfield, and give the location of the fire.

Chief Engineer Marsh has established his office at the truck house.

The Board of Visitors of the Bloomfield Firemen's Relief Association, will hold their regular monthly meetng in the truck house on Tuesday evening.

Mr. T. Winsor Langstroth, formerly a member of Essex H & L Co. No. 1, and now a resident of Paterson, recently joined one of the military companies of that city. He was presented on Saturday evening with a set of military equipments by the truck boys.

Mr. John Dalrymple sails to-day on the Pacific Mail steamer Newport, for San Francisco, en route for lower California on account of impaired health. He was one of the first members of Essex H & L Co. No. 1, and on Tuesday evening the company presented him with a fine traveling bag and a handsome gold badge inscribed "Presented to John Dalrymple by Essex H & L Co. No. 1, B. F. D. 1886."

Members of the Company will meet today on the dock, foot of Canal street, North River, at 11.15 A. M., to wish him a pleasant and safe voyage.

In accepting his resignation, the following resolution offered by the Foreman was adopted:

Resolved, "That it is with a feeling of regret that we accept the resignation of our esteemed member, John Dalrymple, and we trust that in the healthful climate to which he soon journeys, he will find renewed health and strength, and that He to whom we look for all the blessings of this life, will restore to his family and this company our friend and comrade."

Arbor Day.

The County Superintendent of Public Schools has issued the following circular in regard to Arbor Day.

BLOOMFIELD, N. J., APRIL 15, 1886.

TO THE PRINCIPALS OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS:

An Act of Legislature approved April 14th, 1884, directs that on the Annual Arbor Day, appointed by the Governor, "appropriate exercises shall be introduced in all the schools of the State." It is the duty of the State Superintendent to issue circulars of information and instruction; and of the County Superintendents, to prepare a program of exercises. The Governor having appointed Friday, April 23, as ARBOR DAY for this year, the State Superintendent has issued a circular, a copy of which is herewith enclosed. This circular is so complete, suggestive and elastic, that it can easily "be adapted to the various local conditions," which might not be the case with a formal program. The enclosed extracts are suggestive only; if teachers have other selections which they prefer, they are at liberty to use them.

There can be no more appropriate feature of the ceremonies than the planting of trees under the direction of the Trustees.

The Superintendent believes that in every school in the County the law will be observed in spirit as well as in letter.

ORANGE.

The marriage of Miss Isabella S. Carter and George B. Phelps, M. D., of New York city, took place at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Oliver S. Carter, on Northfield Ave., at noon on Wednesday. There were about thirty-five guests present, including all the relatives of the bride and groom.

William Dudley, an old hackman, left his blankets in his hack Tuesday night, and about 6 o'clock two tramps stole them. Sergeant Conroy traced the tramps to Newark, where, after making several attempts to sell the property in Canal street, they disposed of it to a rag man.

The clerks in the Orange stores have started a movement to secure the closing at 7 o'clock every evening except Saturday, during the Summer, and beginning with May 1st. They have formed a temporary organization of the clerks of Orange and East Orange, and have appealed to all the labor organizations, with the result that nearly all of them have passed resolutions pledging themselves not to buy anything after 7 o'clock in the evening; and not to trade with anyone who keeps open after that hour. The storekeepers are inclined to oppose the movement.

The Masonic brethern removed the goat from the old building at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. It was brought out bridled and saddled, the saddle bearing the letters "F. and A. M.," and was driven to Brady's gallery and photographed. It was then spirited away to a place of safety, where it will be kept until the new Masonic Hall is completed.

The monthly reception at the Y. M. C. A. building was a well-attended and pleasant event, the members and their lady friends being entertained with a musical and literary programme.

EAST ORANGE.

The East Orange Township Committee held their regular monthly meeting Monday evening, with Chairman McAdams presiding and all the members present. A large amount of important business was transacted, and it was after 11 before adjournment. The Finance Committee made an extended report, defining the duties of the township officers and fixing their salaries as follows: Town Clerk $550; Assessor, $900; Tax Receiver, $1,800; Town Counsel, $500; Town Physician, $150; Overseer of Poor, $300: Overseer of Roads, $2.50 per diem for actual service; Auditor $75; Police Justice, $250; Janitor, $120. The Tax Receiver reported receipts, including balance at last report, $23,408.35; disbursements, $4,005.29.

The trouble in Seabury & Johnson's porous plaster factory terminated in a strike Thursday morning, 75 of the 100 hands, chiefly girls, quitting work shortly after 7 o'clock. On March 30, nine girls were discharged by the foreman because, he said, they were incompetent. The girls claim that they were dismissed because they were forming a labor union. Their companions asked for their re-engagement and sent a committee to talk to Mr. Seabury. The committee reported that Mr. Seabury refused to hear them, and an effort is now being made to inaugurate a general boycott on goods made by the firm.
